

Participants' voices!

1. How is/was your area of work affected by extreme weather during the implementation of your programmes?

How did you cope with this?

2. Sometimes during ongoing emergency operations, the same affected areas are hit again by a disaster. Does this resonate with you?

3. What would you have done differently, if you would have known about a disaster happening in the area of your work?